

Welcome to Nordic Open Masters Championships 2016

Asker svømmeklubb and Bærumsvømmerne have the pleasure of welcoming you to participate in the Nordic Open Masters Championships on the 14th and 15th of October 2016 at the Landøya swimming facility, Asker. Asker is an urban coastal area approximately 25 kilometers from the center of Oslo and with good public transportation facilities.

Competition Venue

The competition takes place in a 25 meter pool with six lanes. A small 10 meter heated pool can be used as a warm up/swim down pool during the competition sessions. See nom2016.org for more details about the pool. Information about the lunches available between the Saturday morning and afternoon sessions will be posted on the competition web page and Facebook page.

Experience Asker and Oslo

For those who are first time visitors to Oslo, there will be a good selection of attractions to choose from; The Holmenkollen ski-jump, Viking Museum, Kon-Tiki museum, Vigeland sculpture park and of course Akershus Fortress overlooking the Aker Brygge shopping and restaurant area. Asker also has some nice spots; The Oslofjorden coastal museum, the protected wooden 18-century-village of Vollen, and the beautiful lake Semsvannet. Asker has a small town center with a good selection of shops and restaurants.
